Now you can build really big model Tanks thanks to Airfix's new range. These are big 1:35 scale models. Once complete, from gun tip to rear exhaust you'll have a model stretching 41cm across your workbench.

The kit comprises the hull, turret and running gear as you'd expect. However, this kit includes a set of interior details! By careful assembly you can leave the model with a turret ready to lift off and show off your surprise - the detailed interior!

The initial range of 1:35 kits from Airfix features over a dozen classic Tanks - the Tiger being an obvious choice to start of your modelling in 1:35 scale.

This kit includes 15 sprues of plastic parts for you to assemble and paint, plus additional items for the vinyl components. There is even a detailed set of etched engine grills included.

Add to this a new and fully researched assembly manual, decal sheet and two paint schemes. You'll get hours of enjoyment from this large-scale model Tank.
