
FMA IA 58A Pucara

View this kit on the website.

In the 1982 War, apart from Port Stanley airport, Pucarás were also operated from two small grass improvised airfields at Goose Green and Pebble Island. They were used in the reconnaissance role and shot down a Royal Marines Scout on May 28, the only confirmed Argentine air-to-air victory of the war.

Airfix Series (first appearance): 3
First Issued: 2008

Box art Artists

Artist on Box Type 15: John D. Jones

This kit appeared in these catalogues:
2008 Edition Ref: A03068

ebay