
Junkers Ju87 Stuka

View this kit on the website.

Complementing the other Second World War subjects in the 1:48th scale range is this new kit of the German Stuka dive-bomber. One of two versions can be built, either the Ju87B-2 with underwing bombs and markings for an aircraft based in North Africa, or a Ju87R based in Russia and fitted with long-range fuel tanks. Although simple to construct, the complete model has full external detail, a cockpit with two crew and moving wheels and propeller. Wing span of the model is 290mm. - Taken from the 1981 edition catalogue
